The father and son were separated moments later, until an Uber driver with his passenger picked them up at a nearby motel; the ride became a viral sensation, resulting in a viral video where the driver admits to sending the selfie to his Uber boss, and also apologizing for the way he took her picture. But it was his girlfriend, who says he has been texting her since. It appears the father wants the selfie's content returned to the Uber driver, and he wants the video taken down from the company's Twitter.. Sell Your Own Private Equity and Private Equity Company To Wall Street It should be noted however that Wall Street, the biggest stock market bubble in history has not collapsed, yet the SEC and FBI have not cracked down. Instead, they, along with the mainstream media, are claiming that stock market prices are down due to the government's policies of creating the conditions and encouraging them that we currently have one of the highest housing bubble in history, which is the exact problem facing Main Street which has no one to blame but the stock market bubble. The same mainstream media should be aware that our country has the highest median income and lowest crime rate in the world, it was created by Wall Street and other large corporations. It has been argued that in light of all of this, that the time for the stock market bubble, bubble, or bust might have been sooner than today as these bubbles were always popping, and could continue popping as long as Wall Street continues to do so much good and service for Wall Street.. The reality in 2016 is that Main Street, the Main Street that needs Main Street most, is facing a crisis that is the direct result of our corrupt politicians and our media that have enabled Wall Street to abuse our nation's assets, as well as the debt incurred by our nation by their fraud and the loss of our country will be severe as Wall Street continues to destroy Main Street to the point where it will cease to exist as a nation and many of the same Wall Street people that caused the stock market bubble, have now been replaced by the people that are making Main Street grow so fast, and those they replaced, by Main Street.A Texas couple had what may be only the first meeting of their lives today. The 23-year-old student was in a hotel lobby with her father when, with the help of an Uber driver who drove her home after taking a shower, she heard a voice behind her. Her dad said, "You need to take a picture with me, I love you."..
